Title: Individual Manuscripts Collection
ID: D.472
Date [inclusive]: ca. 1750-2012
Physical Description: 6.0 Linear feet 5 File Drawers
Language of the Material: English

Preferred Citation

(Name of item, if applicable), Individual Manuscripts Collection, Date Span, D.472, Dept. of Rare Books Special Collections, and Preservation, River Campus Libraries, University of Rochester.

Scope and Contents

Arrangement

The Individual Manuscripts Collection is a collection in name only. It consists of single items or small numbers of items generally received from a single source. For this reason, the items may seem to be out of sequence in this finding aid. For example, materials in the MacLehose folder (under "M") include letters written by Ainger, Morrison, and Smith. These MacLehose materials are kept together to preserve their provenance and intellectual integrity, rather than dispersed to present a simple A-Z list of materials.

Letter to Oliver Phelps of Canadaqui. Written in Geneseo, NY.

General note

From a display card in the folder: The letter complains of the treatment which he and Mr. Clement had received in Geneseo, when, on the night of their arrival, they were alarmed by four or five armed men who insisted on their giving an account of themselves. "It was our intention to have gone to Canadaqui to pay our respects to you, but from the treatment we have received, we do not think it prudent to venture further in the country ..."

Scope and Contents note

Receipt of transfer of land in Portsmouth, NH.

General note

The transfer is between Henry and Sarah Appleton, who sold the land, and Ebenezer Deering, who bought it. Clagell and Nathan Hart were witnesses; Clagett appears to have been the scribe of the transaction, and signed the document twice. The date at the top, July 10, 1767, is taken from the reverse, where the transfer is recorded by the state; the document itself is dated June 26 of that year.

Presented by President Valentine, 3/25/43

Scope and Contents note

In this copy of a letter to J. Miller McKim, Garrison writes from Boston that he is happy and eager to congratulate McKim on his upcoming journey to England. Garrison writes that McKim is more than qualified to "meet British abolitionists face to face" and to help "remove their erroneous notions about us." The second half of the letter discusses a fugitive slave's sister in Baltimore and is trying to come to Boston to reunite with her brother. Garrison outlines a plan for McKim to seek out a friend in Baltimore to buy the young woman's ticket so as to avoid any risk of detection.

Hiram, Sibley, Nash, J.C. and Smith, E.F., 1862

Scope and Contents
In this letter, Hiram Sibley, John C. Nash, and Elijah F. Smith write on behalf of the Committee of the Citizens of the City of Rochester to New York Governor Edwin D. Morgan complaining of the defenseless condition of Rochester's harbor at the mouth of the Genessee River during the Civil War. The letter stresses the importance of the harbor's port to Lake Ontario and the functioning of the Erie Canal's public works operations. At the end of the letter, a plea is made to the Governor to create a plan of protection or to assist the men in making the matter known to the "Government at Washington."

Scope and Contents Note

[Text aligned upside along top margin of Page 1] I am stoping [sic] with an old mother by the home of [Sparow – Nelley Spano?] St. Louis March 6 69 My dear daughter Amalia I arrived in this City about 12 O'clock yesterday from Chicago I left there Thursday night about 10 o'clock 40 M- it is 3 hundred Miles fair [sic] 12 dollars - it is 3 hundred Miles from Syracuse to N.Y. City - and we got it in much less time and pay only 6 dollars & a few cents. This City is much larger than I thought for I am tole [sic] they have some 20 thous [sic] and Colored people alone with with many more white people but O what a place - for Colored people - they are behind the times - away behind to you at the Loguen house in Syracuse. I hope you and Cara received my last from Chicago – I do not know what to say about the people in Chicago-they are a strange set of people One thing I know they are a fast people, and a bad people to I think = Some fine ones I think among them but they are scarce [sic] - I can not say how long I shall remain remain heare [sic] they want me to returne [sic] by the way of Chicago I think. I shall - I want you to say to say to Willie to send the books – I wrote to him to send to Chicago I hope he he has the letter before this - Did Gerrit go to Washington or not. How are you geting [sic] a lot - Has Mis [sic] Smith gone yet or not - I have had a bad cole [sic] for about two weeks and it yet holes [sic] on to me - I wish I may well it is bad to be sick at home but much worse when from home - The people are poor and can not give a Bishop a good place to stay at in this City poor homes and little money. do not pay my monthly expenses-

But I hope to get through as I brought enough nessery [sic] things to pay my way as I told them in Chicago when they were sharing some of this poverty. The wether [sic] is cold in this city at present very cold-I will be here about two weeks I think - if you write send in care of Rev. J.J. Whiten. Love to all the dear ones at home

From your father J.W. Loguen P.S. Cara O Cara how are you Cara – I want to see you much-J.W.L.

Oahgwadaiya, Seneca Chief, July 10, 1789
1.0 Item(s) total

Scope and Contents note

The letter is addressed to Shinewanh Miller, Road Master, regarding a grindstone Miller bought from "the Indians," and indicating that Miller should return it to the Chief's agent at Canandaigua. It was likely dictated, and two small drawings (one of a bird, one a geometric pattern) are done in a different hand where the signature would typically follow. The exterior address panel indicates that the letter was delivered to Miller by Chief Little Beard.
Biographical / Historical note

The Seneca Chief Hot Bread is Oahgwadaiya, chief of Canauwagus village in what is today called Caledonia, NY. He was formerly called Gwakwadia (c. 1790) and Ahquatieya (c. 1797), was known as an orator and a war chief, and on March 30th, 1808 signed a treaty or deed involving the Tuscarora Nation. He died at Tonawanda, of smallpox.

The Seneca Chief Little Beard is She-gwoin-de-gue or Sequidongquee, chief of Chenussio (or Little Beard's Town) in what is today called Cuylerville, in Livingston County, NY. He signed the Canadaigua Treaty of 1794 and the Treaty at Big Tree in 1797. The name (which was inherited by his successor) also appears on treaties in 1815 and 1826. He died at Tonawanda in 1806.

Phelps, Oliver, June 15, 1792

Scope and Contents

In this letter, an agreement between Oliver Phelps, Nathaniel Gorham and James Wadsworth is made concerning land in the Genesee Valley, specifically Big Tree Township in Ontario County. There are five parts to the agreement, each detailing the duties of each aforementioned individual in the process of procuring the land. The agreement includes promises of payment and timelines for duties to be fulfilled.

Scope and Contents note
Copies of letters from Anne to Sir Charles Hedges.

General note
This item is a copy of eleven letters from Anne (1665–1714) to Sir Charles Hedges, one of her secretaries of state, primarily regarding stays of execution. One letter mentions the capture of Valencia, Spain; Charles Mordaunt, earl of Peterborough, took Valencia on January 24, 1706, suggesting the original letters were written in 1705–06, and these copies were likely made later in 1706 or 1707.

Poem, "I saw a squalid street."
General note

The poem was originally with the Charles Eliot Norton letter to John Ruskin of Dec. 14, 1858. This is probably not the poem that Norton originally included in the letter, however; see Metzdorf’s dissertation. The poem was published in Trevelyan’s Selections (1879) under the title "Street Music." Folder includes catalog description of Norton’s letter and this poem, typewritten transcription, and brief typewritten note on card catalog card.
