Wednesday, November 3

Nuclear Structure Seminar, "Heavy Ion Transfer Reactions in the top Shell," led by Professor R. Siemsen, Anywhere Laboratory.

Photo by Dylan Thomas

FRANK ZAPPA is alive and well and living under a rock.

events

Wednesday, November 3

- Nuclear Structure Seminar, "Heavy Ion Transfer Reactions in the top Shell," led by Professor R. Siemsen, Anywhere Laboratory.

Thursday, November 4

- Department of Fine Arts will present a film, Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son, upper Strong, 2 pm.
- Physics and Astronomy Colloquium, "Modern Guidance Systems," Professor Charles S. Drake of MIT; Beach and Loomis 108, 6:30 pm; beach and Loomis 271, 4 pm.
- Bika Louman, recent refugee from the Soviet Union, will speak on her experiences with Soviet Antisemitism, Welles-Brown Room, 4 pm.
- Symposium on East Pakistani Crisis; panel will include Professors Gupta, Malik, Jain, Zahir, Terani, and Cashman, chairman, 8:30 pm, Horncastle 151. All are welcome.
- Evolution of a Yogi, a film in which Richard Alpert discusses why he became a Yogi; at the Alternative, 8:15 pm.

Friday, November 5

- Freshman Football vs. Hobart at Geneva, 2 pm.
- Cinema Group will present Kelly's Heroes, upper Strong; check Friday's CFT for times.
- International Folk Dancing, women's gym, teaching for beginners, 7:30 pm; request session, 9:30 pm.

的通知

- CEE FARM CO-OP MEETING, tonight, 7 pm, FOB 315.
- VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL; Representative Richard Werth will be in the Placement and Post College Planning Office today, November 7, 9 am-12 pm; 1 pm-4 pm to talk with pre-law students interested in attending Vanderbilt Law School. Make appointments in advance in FOB 309.

- COMPLIMENTARY ADMISSIONS OF THE INTERRACCOLL PLACEMENT ANNUAL are available to all 1972 graduates who registered with the Placement Office.

DISPLAY OF LEADING SILVERWARE PATTERNS will be in Gannett lounge, tomorrow, 9 am-5 pm. Take five minutes to look at the patterns and record your performances. Especially for junior and senior girls.

OPERATIONS EUROPE: New dates for Intersession Flight: Saturday, January 22-Wednesday, February 1, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 12-1:30 WRH, 4:30 pm.

RECREATION TOURNAMENT: Any girls interested in entering the Intercollegiate Recreation Tournament in ping pong or billiards please contact Room 309 in Dewey Hall immediately.

- WANTED - Folk guitar. Call Sara 275-6872.
- WANTED - Two bicycles - male/female. Call Judy x6858.
- WANTED - Horse, knee socks are great! Brand names at 20-40% below retail price. Inquire 1599 East Avenue.
- WANTED - Lined, cotton, and phone number to: Mr. C.R. Danforth, 168 N. Main.
- WANTED - Student chairman! Anyone interested in helping to manage the Varsity Swim Team please call Sheila at x4494.

SITE LOCATIONS

- OFF CAMPUSES - interested in travelling intercollegiate basketball? Teams up as a functional office,Main, 7-4 pm.
- DO IT AT LUNCH! New at the MDC Faculty 11:30-1:30, ROB STONE STEREO. Your one-stop shop for stereo records, tapes and accessories. Inquire 1599 East Avenue.
- WE'D LOVE TO SEE YOU AT THE A.S.I.E. WINE HOUR; on Thursday this week, at 5 pm in Art Studio Lounge. Everyone welcome.
- GET RIPPED OFF - by a Rochester resident? Look for refund slips - report them at Campus Police x326.
- SHELBY NIGHT: Sanborn's, 711 Garden St. tickets sold out. Ticket sales - main, Wed., 12:30-1:30, Fri., 11:30-1:30, MDC.
- FRANK ZAPPA - is alive and well and living under a rock.
- ON THE AIR... Seventy-one women were succeeded in chapter eight, upper Strong.
- KATY - we dig your bod. What are you doing after work? (Jeff, Barry, Terry) Need a ride? Call 275-6872.

classified

Family of, the University of Rochester Alumni Tidings 1972

- FRANK ZAPPA is alive and well and living under a rock.

Off-campus living opportunities:

- CAMPUS TIMES  November 4, 1971

Photograph by Paula Crumrine