

LESTER ROSEN

March 25, 1982

I went to Dan's office expecting the subcommittee markup for 9:30. It was in papers. Lester laughed: "I told you he wouldn't cancel the markup at the 24th hour didn't I? The administration has agreed to accept the bipartisan bill. But they have 5 amendments they want to add. They asked for the weekend to draw up those amendments. We'll have the markup on Tuesday."