

PAUL TSONGAS

May 27, 1982

In Foreign Relations a juxtaposition occurs which highlights Paul's humor.

Percy Pell and Tsongas are only one there and they are going through a markup of the AID budget.

Percy: "May I have a brief recess so I can take an emergency call from senators Hatfield and Baker." He whirls around in his seat and disappears out the door in back of him.

Paul (after the door closes) "All those in favor say aye." Lots of laughter - quick wit.

run pence!
