If you are interested in fishing, and are going to be in Wisconsin at any time, give in and see us and we will show you where the Muskie grew.
My grandchildren's play house in our yard.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
My dear grandchildren,
Barbara and Patricia Jones.

I know you are interested in pictures so I thought I would send you a few of my work.

Mrs. J.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
A six pound and a half bunch of grapes that I took with the portrait lens in our dorm room.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
The east side of our home. I used a cartridge Kodak from 1894 until three years ago. Now I have a No. 3-a Autographic Kodak Special with a Barrel and Forbes Lens which does fine work.
The pivot of our home
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Myself, my ear, and Widgey, my Pomeranian dog. Taken in our yard.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Otter Lake

One of Wisconsin's northern lakes.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
The father and mother of Lydia Kilbourn, (who was my grandmother), lived on a farm near the village of Brownville, New York, during the last part of the 19th century.

HANNAH
- Mar. Smith
- ALPHAS
  - Died of early age
  - ALFRED
    - Mar. Cobb
    - Had one daughter: FRANCIS
- LYDIA
  - Born Jan. 1st, 1810
  - Mar. Asaph Green
  - July 4th, 1830

HANNAH MARIA
- Born 1833
- Mar. James Hall

JANE
- Died in infancy

GEORGE
- Mar. Vinzent

RUTH
- Mar. James Rose

CLAUDE

DAISY

ELLA

NELLIE
- Mar. Marshall

Jennie
- Mar. Dean

EMMA
- Mar. Keyer

LYDIA
- Mar. Westenhagen

AMELIA ANH
- Born 1834
- Mar. Dan Sloper

GEORGE
- Born 1860
- Mar. 3 girls

LAURA
- Died in infancy

FERGUS FERRIN
- Born 1835
- Brownville, N.Y.
- Mar. Mary Jones

FERGUS
- Mar.?

RUTH
- Mar. Virginia

MARJORY

ASAPH
- Mar.?

WILLIAM
- Mar.?

RICHARD

DEWITT

FRANCIS
- Mar. E. Ellsworth

EARL

JENNIE

GEORGE
- Mar.?

IDA

JENNIE

DAVID
- Died in infancy

ELLEN JANE
- Born 1837
- Brownville, N.Y.
- Mar. David LeCount
- Surgeon in Northern army during Civil War.

WINFIELD
- Born 1895
- Died 1912

MERRITT
- Born 1890
- Mar. Grace Ivers
- Captain in Medical Corps in World War.

BARTER

BARBARA

PATRICIA

WINFIELD
- Born 1895
- Died 1912
This is my mother, Ellen Green.
La Comte, joint cousin of Francis Kilbourn.
The pictures were taken on the same day in 1862.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Francis Kilbourn
daughter of Alfred Kilbourn born about 1840.
Hansan Jan 28 ed 1930

My Dear Mr. Eastman,

You were very kind to send me the pictures of your father and mother. They are beautiful and interesting to have. I am sure I am going to send you a brief outline of our branch of the Kilbourn family as I remember it and a few pictures that may interest you.
Thanking you for the picture and your kind wishes for the new year. I beg to remain your very sincerely,

Mrs. D. J. Jones
414 Kent St.
Cannan, W. Va.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Ussëmin Delle.
Dr. D.T. Jones and myself on the boat.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Wisconsin Dells
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Della taken in 1921 with my car tride Kodak.
Napan, Dec 30th 1909

My Dear Mr. Eastman:

I am sending, as a New Year's Greeting, a few pictures that will probably be of interest to you. The portrait is a picture of my grandmother, Lydia Kilbourne Green, and her brother Alfred Kilbourne. The landscape is an enlargement of a snapshot taken by me.

Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Thirty five years ago with the first Eastman
Porter wild in Kansas.
The small one gives just the size of the paddle.
I felt that you would be interested, especially in the portraits of the Kilbourns, because of your correspondence wit my cousin Mrs. Emma Hall Mayer in Milwaukee.
Wishing you a Happy New Year.

Yours sincerely,

[Signature]

614 East 27th St.
Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
This is my Grandmother
Lydia Kilbourne.
She was born in Brownville,
New York, in 1810, Jan. 1st.
She was married July 4th, 1830 to Asaph Green. They moved to Wisconsin in 1856.
They had four children,
three girls and one boy.
The youngest girl was my mother, Ellen Green.
Lydia Kilbourne died
Aug 30th, 1890.

Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs
This is Grandmother's older brother, Alfred Kilbourn, who was born in Brownville, New York. He purchased the home of General Brown in Brownville, where he lived during his life. He lived to be a very old man. He was married and had one child, Francis, who died when she was about forty years old.
Family of Lydia Kilbourn, with photographs