FROM ROCHESTER

Below—Shirley Brannan, a charming visitor from the Eastman Kodak Company, who in September spent three weeks in England with her friend Olive Sheffield of Harrow. The two girls have been pen-friends for eight years, but had never met until this trip. They first contacted one another through Olive’s sister Pat who was a ‘Kodakid’ during the war. Olive’s father, who is in the Letterpress Department at Harrow, told us ‘We were delighted to meet Shirley and we all thoroughly enjoyed her visit—although I’m afraid we sometimes walked her off her feet’. Edinburgh, Stratford-on-Avon and London were three of the many places of interest that the girls visited during the three-weeks holiday.
