

who spend his time looking out for the fishermen. We've taken very good care of the state--on the staff level anyway. And Bill has come in when he's needed. But we have left him free to take care of the things down here like our promises from 1976. We didn't make ^{many} ~~money~~. But we said we'd stop Dickey Lincoln and we stopped it. We said we would save Loring Air Base and we saved it. We said we'd settle the Maine Indian dispute and we settled it. We got money for Bath, Marymount, FMI. Bill Cohen can get things ^{done} ~~down~~... The Reagan thing has me worried. He doesn't run well in New England. But Bill's strength is that he's always been independent. He's his own man."

He talked about environmentalists, elderly and women as groups they have to work on. He's ^{OK} done with these people but he's also vulnerable to them if he doesn't watch out. His work on social security disability will affect his problems on social security vote. Environmentalists have been with him. And he's pro-choice--which should help with women.

The Emery experience got him psyched up to go on BC's campaign, I think.

He rattled on about Emery problems at great length.

He said a couple of times "The middle will win in Maine." Emery too ^{too} pro Pentagon, Pro Reaganomics, etc.
