

Muldawer. Bill will go on as campaign manager in June or July 1992.

- Will be fund-raisers in Georgia.
- Nov. 2 is kick-off dinner - ^{Nunn}~~Nina~~ and Gov. Miller will be there. WF wants to take in $1 million; Bill says he'll be happy with $600,000. He thinks it will be run by Sue Ramsey and Muldawer and Bob Redding - they want to get 100 tables at $1,000 each.
- They raised $1 million by June 1991 and they'd like to get $2 million by years-end.
- "I've recommended to him that he concentrate on Georgia now. Our FEC report was more pleasing than our poll results have been. We're better off financially than politically. Next week he has a fund-raiser in California, and it was a matter of dispute between him and me. He's not focussed yet on the campaign in Georgia. Its hard to get him focussed. I may have to set up a meeting with our consultants."
- He said they would do a fly around near the end of Yom Kippur-Savannah, Columbus, Atlanta.
- He said there would be an October get-together for big contributors--those who "maxed out." There was an ulterior motive--to get these people to sell tickets for November 2.
- He said they were going to do some filming.
- He talked about the erosion of Democratic strength in Georgia and the blame they were getting for the budget mess. He said that the Democrats must shed their individual roles that it doesn't pay in the current environment. Talked about value running vs. institution and leadership, but I didn't get the point in my notes - must talk to him later about that.
