

love him and want to give him so much. He's being a little hard on people now. He's not fun."

"He could have had the delegation chairmanship, but he kept saying no he didn't want it. It was another missed opportunity. Celeste called him and told Dick that he (Dick) should take it. So Celeste went and told everybody that Glenn didn't want it. We kept it open till the very last minute. He could have been honorary chairman, with Jim Ruvolo as chairman. But he wouldn't do it. I think it was a mistake.
