DUPLICATION SERVICES ORDER FORM

The University of Rochester Library will copy rare book and manuscript material in its collections for Library patrons under the following conditions:

1. Copying is limited to such material in the collections as the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections considers suitable. We reserve the right to limit the number of items copied, or to decline to make copies of a particular item, especially when such copying cannot be done without injury to the material. Only single copies will be made for study and research purposes.

2. The Library patron honors any copyright restrictions on the material.

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproductions. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

3. Permission to further reproduce or publish material in any medium – print, electronic, microfilm, broadcast, etc. – must also be obtained from the University of Rochester Library as owners of the property rights, and use fees for publication may be charged. Permission to publish, and use fees, also apply for researcher-created digital images.
